

COOKIE POLICY

FOR

We use cookies on our website to differentiate you from other users. This allows us to provide you with a better experience when you use our website. It also helps us improve our website.

A cookie is a small file of letters and numbers which we store on your browser or your computer hard drive, if you agree. Cookies contain information which is transferred to your computer's hard drive.

We use the following cookies:

Strictly necessary cookies. These are cookies that are required for the operation of our website. They include, for example, cookies that enable you to log into secure areas of our website, use a shopping cart or make use of e-billing services.

Analytical or performance cookies. These allow us to recognise and count the number of visitors and to see how visitors move around our website when they are using it. This helps us to improve the way our website works, for example, by ensuring that users are finding what they are looking for easily.

Functionality cookies. These are used to recognise you when you return to our website. This enables us to personalise our content for you, greet you by name and remember your preferences (for example, your choice of language or region).

Targeting cookies. These cookies record your visit to our website, the pages you have visited and the links you have followed. We will use this information to make our website and the advertising displayed on it more relevant to your interests. We may also share this information with third parties for this purpose.

Please be aware that the following third parties may also use cookies which we have no control over. For example, these named third parties may include advertising networks and providers of external services like web traffic analysis services. These cookies are likely to be analytical or performance cookies or targeting cookies:

Google and Google Analytics. We use Google Analytics Premium, a web analytics service to help analyse how users use our websites. The information generated by the cookies about your use of our website and your current IP-address will be transmitted by your browser and will be stored by Google on servers in the United States and other countries. Google will use this information on our behalf for the purpose of evaluating your use of the website, compiling reports on website activity, and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage to us. You may refuse the use of this cookie by downloading and installing the Google Analytics Opt-out Browser Add-on available at <http://tools.google.com/dlpage/gaoptout>.

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly.
